FROM SUMMER TO FALL

For the past couple of weeks spanning August and September, we were able to spend some time on vacation with our family. We had hoped to be able to get everyone together in one place, but that was not possible. We were able to spend a week with our youngest daughter, Rachel, her husband, Tristan, and and their four children: Henry, Brynne, Pemberley, and Clara from Illinois. They are helping to plant the Shorewood Baptist Church near Joliet, IL.

On August 28th Cheryl and I celebrated our 41st wedding anniversary. Two days later, we flew to Arizona to spend a week with our oldest daughter, Bethany, her husband Phil and their three children, Adam, Janie, and Micah. The Herwalds are missionaries to the Native Americans at the San Carlos Apache reservation. In addition to spending time with the family, we had the chance to be involved in some of the ministry opportunities there. I had the joy of preaching for the Sunday morning service at the church there. I also had the joy of sharing the gospel at the Korean Taekwondo dojo that my daughter and grandchildren attend. The owner and his wife are Christians. They have a fifteen minute devotional before each of their classes. The night we were there, I presented God's Word to the younger age class with ventriloquism using one of our puppets I had taken with us. I then had the opportunity to preach the gospel for the teen and adult class later that evening. Praise the Lord, several of the students made decisions for salvation.

When we returned from Arizona we headed to Illinois to begin our Fall schedule of meetings. We have just finished our first meeting of that schedule. The services were well attended with lots of visitors. We had the joy of seeing souls saved and many decisions among the church members. The church has a small Christian school. We were able to minister to the young people in Christian schools. It was a blessing to encourage them to remember their Creator while they are young before their souls are lost and before their lives are wrecked.

Several young people expressed a desire to make changes to their lives to live in a way that pleases the Lord Jesus rather than themselves. Our next meeting will be in another church with a Christian school. We are looking forward to the remainder of our Fall schedule. We will be busy in meetings from now through the week after Thanksgiving. We appreciate your prayers for us. It is a joy to have you partnering with us to challenge Believers and win souls! You are a blessing!
