FAMILY REUNION

"Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air:

and so shall we ever be with the Lord." | Thessalonians 4:17

Since our last prayer update we have had three Sunday only series in churches in Maryland, Tennessee, and Florida. God gave us great meetings! The believers made some good decisions which included two young men who testified of God's dealing with them about full time ministry. Praise God! We have three more Sunday only meetings ahead. Then from June on we will be busy with regular meetings for the rest of the year.

In addition to ministry opportunities, we had the chance to spend some time in April visiting family. We spent two weeks with Cheryl's parents in Pennsylvania. Those of you who keep up with our prayer requests are aware that Cheryl's mother has been dealing with stage four cancer. She has such a sweet spirit about it. She is encouraging to be around. When others might groan, and complain, she is looking to the Lord, for His grace each day. She asked us to thank all who have been praying for her. Please continue to pray that the Lord will give her strength and peace.

At the end of April, my sister (nine years older) and brother (four years older) and I, with our spouses, took time for a sibling reunion in Alabama, near where my brother lives. We had not been together since our mother's passing in 2017. It was a great time of recounting memories from the past and "catching up." The most precious time we had together was when we drove an hour to the cemetery in Atmore, Alabama, our mother's hometown. Mom and Dad are buried beside our maternal grandparents there. We cleaned up the grave sights and placed new flowers on the gravestones. We then had an impromptu devotional service. We talked about how thankful we were for the godly heritage we have, sang together our mother's favorite hymn, "It is Well with My Soul." And then prayed together. At the end of the week, it was hard to say "goodbye." But if we never see each other here on earth again, it is a joy to know that we will meet once more, never to part again, at the great reunion in the skies!

We are now purchasing airline tickets and travel insurance for the coming UK Mission Trip this Fall. There are still some logistical details that we need to settle. We also need to raise additional funds for travel since fuel is so expensive. Please pray that God will prepare the hearts of those to whom we will minister.
